

Admission Process

After applying for the PG courses the Admission process starts with Entrance test. The Criteria for admission is 50% marks in degree and 50% marks in Entrance test is added for seeking admission. The admission process is based on roaster system of the Government. I, II and III rounds of the counselling for admission according to the admission process prescribed by the University. Provisional Admission is completed after the challan is generated in the University bank account as mentioned in the Notification given by the University in this regard.