PREAMBLE

The Bombay legislature of the erstwhile Bombay Presidency established Karnatak University through the Karnatak University Act 1949 and it became a statutory University on 1st March 1950. It has now 52 P.G. Departments and 12 Study Chairs and offering courses in the faculties of Arts, Commerce, Education, Law, Management, Science and Technology and Social Sciences. Faculty, staff and students of the University are engaged in Research & Development work of diverse nature. Many of these R & D activities result in the evolution of intellectual property (IP) in the form of Patents, know-how, copyrights, designs, devices, methods, specimens and other inventions, which can be commercially exploited either with or without registration under the Patents Act / Copyright Act. Such a commercial exploitation can be of considerable socio-economic benefit to country in general and University in particular.

The University, therefore, encourages the protection and licensing of such Patents which can be effectively utilized for commercial exploitation. This would yield financial returns to the University, and partially support the R&D activities.

Patents could result from research supported by the University/industry/independent research organizations/ different funding agencies /State Govt /Central Govt etc. Funded research may impose contractual obligations on the University with respect to ownership/licensing of intellectual property, which have to be agreed upon clearly and explicitly at the time the contracts are entered into. This document states the policy of the University with respect to protection, ownership and licensing, of Patents that is generated with/without external funding.

The present policy facilitates protection of the right of the Inventor(s) of the University i.e. faculty/students/project staff/ supporting staff etc through the option of Intellectual property protection on a novel work or to keep it in public domain as they may deem fit. In alignment with the Vision and Mission of the University, the policy favors outreach of the novel technologies developed at the University. At the same time, it motivates the faculty, students and researchers of the University for patenting their novel and applied inventions and initiate technology transfer.

Patent law is the branch of intellectual property law that deals with new inventions. Traditional patents protect tangible scientific inventions. Inventions arising from the creative work of human beings acquire considerable commercial value, in view of the possibility of their use by large sections of the society, not only within the country but also in other parts of the World. Patent is one of the ways through which the scientific inventions which have a potential for industrial application are being protected and thus promoted. In India, the law relating to Patents is contained in the Patents Act, 1970. This Act has been amended several times to meet the challenges of changing times and also to meet India's obligations under the Agreement on Trade Related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights (TRIPS) which forms a part of the Agreement establishing the World Trade Organization (WTO). The Patents Act, 1970 is now conceived as fully compliant with India's obligations under the TRIPS Agreement of the WTO. Further, as regards the Rules framed under the Act, earlier the Patents Rules, 1972, which were in place for close to three decades, were substituted by the Patents Rules, 2003. The Patents Rules, 2003 have also been amended from time to time in order to keep them in line with the international trends and requirements. The importance of Patents has increased tremendously over last few decades which is evident from the fact that every organization is now creating its own strong Patent portfolio. It is thus important to know the advantages involved in getting a Patent and also as to how does the Patent benefit an Inventor.

The objective is to develop among the researchers a greater awareness about the Patent law in India and spell out the procedural mechanism involved in obtaining a Patent, besides explaining the concepts of Assignment, Licensing of Patents etc.

OBJECTIVES

The objectives of this policy document are to

- Foster, stimulate and encourage creative/inventive activities in the areas of sciences, humanities and technology.
- Protect the legitimate interests of faculty/ scholars /students of the University and the society and to avoid as far as possible conflict of opposing interests.
- Lay down a transparent administration system for the ownership control and assignment of Patents and sharing of the revenues generated by the Patents generated and owned by the University.

OWNERSHIP

Inventions, Designs, Fabrications and other Creative works

- (i) University shall be the owner of all Patents unless specific agreements/contracts are entered into by the University as described below, prior to the creation of the Patent, with an agency funding the research leading to the creation of the Patent, or with a temporary employee or student.
- (ii) Specific provisions related to Patents made in contracts governing the collaborative activity shall determine the ownership of Patents among non sponsored or collaborative research or consultancy assignment. The MOU/ contract for such a project may require (a) joint ownership of such Patent between KUD and the sponsor, or (b) full ownership of such Patent by the sponsor or (c) exclusive licensing of such Patent owned by the University to the sponsor or its nominees, or (d) a separate agreement / contract to be entered into a later date consequent to creation of such Patent for exclusive / non-exclusive ownership / licensing of the Patent. In all these cases, the contract / agreement / MOU will specify conditions such as right of first refusal to such Patent if applicable, the fee/royalty payable for ownership / licensing of such Patent as applicable, and also specify how the patent filing, registration and maintenance costs will be borne by the sponsor and / or the University. When faculty / staff enter into an agreement for undertaking sponsored research or consultancy, they are required to assist the University to determine which of the above options is applicable to the particular Project given the nature of research proposed to be undertaken, the degree to which the facilities are leveraged, and the amount of funding provided.
- (iii) If a patent is created as a result of a sponsored research project or consultancy assignment/ project where the contract / MOU / agreement does not specify the ownership and / or licensing of such patents, university and the sponsor shall jointly own the patents. University may however, if it deems appropriate, enter into a separate agreement / contract with the sponsor for licensing the patents to it, which will specify payment of additional fees / royalty.
- (iv) An employee of university who is on sabbatical or other forms of long leave, or a student who is on leave or is permitted by university to be employed in an organization while being registered as a student, and who is engaged in research in an/the organization with the permission of University, will be permitted to directly negotiate with the organization, the terms of any patents sharing that is generated, in its entirety and without any use of University resources, during the duration of the engagement in that organization. However, any revenue that is received by the employee/student subsequently while on duty at University, as royalty / fees for the patents generated as above, shall be subjected to the prevailing patents revenue sharing norms of University. Patents developed by the said employee or student during this period without involvement of creators who are employees or students of University will be outside the purview of this policy. However, in case the patents so created by the employee/student, during the leave period as described above, is based in part or full on prior patents developed at University, the employee/student is required to inform University and enable University to enter into a licensing agreement with the organization in which the employee/student is temporarily engaged.

COPYRIGHTABLE WORKS

Ownership of copyright of all copyrightable work including books and publications shall rest with the creator of the original work with the following exceptions:

- i) If the work is produced during the course of sponsored and/or collaborative activity, specific provisions related to Patent made in contracts governing such activity shall determine the ownership of the copyright.
- ii) University shall be the owner of the copyright of work, including software, created with significant use of University resources.
- iii) University shall be the owner of the copyright on all teaching material developed as part of any of the academic/distance learning programs of University. However, the creator(s) shall have the right to use the material in her/his professional capacity.

Trade Mark(s) / Service Mark(s)

Ownership of trademark(s), service mark(s) logos created for University shall be with the University. In cases of all Patents produced at the University, the University strongly desires to retain a non-exclusive, free, irrevocable license to copy/ use the Patent for teaching and research purposes only, consistent with confidentiality agreements entered into by the University. This is to enable the University to benefit from Patent created by its staff and students for carrying out its teaching and research functions.

EVALUATION AND MANAGEMENT OF PATENT

The patent cell at University is responsible for evaluating, protecting, marketing, licensing and managing the patents generated at University. University mandates disclosure of all potential patents / Inventions / Innovations generated (conceived or reduced to practice in whole or in part) by members of the faculty or staff (including research staff, doctoral students, students and visiting scholars) of University in the course of their University related activities. University identifies the relevant statutory and other mechanisms not limited to Patent, Copyright, Trademark, Design Rights, Integrated Circuit, Plant Varieties and rest towards registration. Disclosure enables prompt action by University to appropriately protect and disseminate the research activities occurring at University. The creators of the patents shall thus provide all the necessary information to University Patent Cell in writing to enable it to determine whether University desires to own and manage the patents. An Invention will typically be patented by University if it has ultimate commercial motivation and viability, even if it is not in the immediate future. If University decides not to own and manage the patents, it shall permit the creator(s) to file patents and protect the patents on their own. However, share of University in revenue resulting from the employee / student from licensing from such patents will be determined as described in Section 9. In the case of patentable patents, it is essential that patent protection is filed before publication or disclosure in any other form in the public domain of the patentable patents. The patents Committee will examine the patents application and will then make specific recommendations regarding Patentability/Registration of the proposal by University. The committee may seek the assistance of experts for this purpose. In all these endeavors confidentiality of the patents shall be strictly ensured. In case the contract / agreement / MOU with a sponsor specifies that the sponsor will manage the process of filing of patents and bear the associated costs, the creators will provide information to the Patent Cell / Office of each such filing / application. Details of the invention need not be provided in such cases in the interest of confidentiality, if so desired. Progress of the application through various stages, such as Patent Cooperation Treaty (PCT), national phase, etc will be informed to the Patent Cell / Office by the creators as and when the creators become aware of such progress.

REGISTRATION OF PATENTS/COPYRIGHTS

Filing of Applications in India

Creators of the know how/designs/ instruments/ devices/ processes/ specimens and other such patents, who want to get patent(s) for the patentable patents are required to make an application for the purpose to the co-coordinator/Head, Patent cell as per the procedure specified by University at the time. In case, a sponsor of the research leading to the patents has contractually undertaken the responsibility of filing of applications, the creator may interact with the sponsor for the filing, after informing the Patent Cell / Office of the same. The creator is required to keep the Cell / Office informed of the progress of the application as it goes through various stages. The details of the application such as title, names of inventors, etc must be provided, although the invention details need not be provided as long as the details are not public knowledge in the patenting process. Creator(s) are encouraged to file a provisional patent as soon as possible in order to protect their rights to the patents. If the creator(s) can pay for the cost of provisional filing from (a) the funds of the research project resulting in the patents, or (b) the professional development fund (PDF) of the creator(s), or (c) personal financial resources of the creator(s), the permission for filing of provisional patent will be given automatically before evaluation of the application made by the creator(s) by the Patents Committee. In such cases, the technical details of the invention need not be provided to the Patent Cell at this stage in the interest of confidentiality. However, should University after due evaluation decide not to manage the patents, the provisional application will lapse, unless the creator(s) decide to take up the subsequent stages on their own. In such cases, University will waive its rights to the ownership of the patent rights. If University decides to jointly or fully own and manage the patents, it will bear all costs related to filing and protection after the date on which it decides to do so. In case, the creator(s) paid for the provisional filing from personal financial resources or PDF, these costs will be reimbursed after University decides to own and manage the patents. Patents related information will either not be disclosed at all, or be provided on a need-to-know basis to certain employees of University. All University employees associated with any activity of University shall treat all such patents-related information, which they may have access to as part of their official duties, as confidential. Such confidentiality shall be maintained till such time as required by University or by the relevant contract, if any, between University and concerned parties, unless such knowledge is in the public domain or is generally available to the public.

Filing of Applications in Foreign Countries

Filing of Applications in Foreign Countries University may consider requests for registration of Patents in foreign countries, based on the merit of the patents. Typically, the process to be followed in such cases is the filing of a provisional application, detailed evaluation of the commercial potential of the patents in the countries proposed for filing, filing of PCT application in case such potential is present, followed by national phase filing in the selected countries. During the time before the process reaches the national phase, the commercial potential will be continually assessed, and if at any time it appears that the commercial potential in a foreign country appears to be low, University may decide to not file in the particular country. During this period, the creator(s) are also encouraged to apply for financial support for international filing being provided by several ministries to public institutions. If University decides not to file such a patent in any foreign country, University may require that the patent be filed in the name of University without the requirement payment of fees or in its sole discretion, license the rights for the patents in that country to the creator(s) and permit the creator(s) to protect the patents in that country either on their own or in partnership with a sponsor. Any revenue accruing to the creator(s) as a result of exploitation of the rights licensed to the creator(s) in that country will be subject to the rules for sharing of revenue with University that are applicable to the creator(s) as per their employment / enrollment contracts. The creator(s) may seek reimbursement of the costs borne by them for protection of the patents in that country from the revenue prior to sharing with University. In case the patenting costs are borne by the sponsor of a research project as agreed upon in the contract / agreement, the Patent Cell only needs to be kept informed of the progress of the international patent application(s) through various phases such as PCT, national phases, etc. The sponsor may choose any legal firm of their choice for the filing. If University takes up the filing, the creator(s) are required to engage one of the legal firms approved for filing from time to time.

RENEWAL OF PATENTS

University will pay the Patent Fees for the first seven years in all cases where the patent is taken by University. If it is a joint patent with a sponsoring agency the patenting costs may be equally shared. If the patent has been commercially exploited within the first seven years, University shall pay the Patent Fees for the remaining period of the life of the patent. If the patent has not been commercially exploited within the first seven years, University and the creator(s) shall share the subsequent installments of renewal fees on a 50:50 basis. The creator(s) are permitted to pay their share of the costs from their Professional Development Fund (PDF). If the creator does not show interest in such renewals, University can either continue maintenance of the patent by paying the fees for its full term or withdraw application for Patent protection at its discretion.

CONFIDENTIALITY OF PATENT

Every creator in the group as well as everyone involved in the protection process will not disclose the details of the patents to any person/organization without prior written permission of University. In case of thesis and other such written documents containing details of patentable patents, all measures to avoid attracting the public disclosure clause leading to denial of patent may be taken by creators. It is best if the creators make provisional patent filings before documenting the details of the patents in theses, papers and other documents.

REVENUE SHARING

Except as otherwise provided in this policy, the following scale would apply to apportion, among the Inventor(s) and the University, any Technology Transfer Fees, Lump sum payments, and Royalty(ies) received through the Technology Transfer, Licensing, and Commercialization efforts of the University-owned patent, on a half yearly basis in the months of October and April of each financial year. For all Revenues (Technology Transfer Fees plus Lump sum payments plus Royalties) up to Rs. 50 Lakhs, a 60/40 ratio may be used with 60% being in favour of the Inventor(s) and 40% to the University after deducting the expenses involved in patents protection and Technology Transfer if any.

For all Revenues in excess of Rs. 50 Lakhs

For the first Rs. 50 lakhs a 60/40 ratio as above will be used.

For the amounts in excess of 50 Lakhs, 10% of the Revenues in excess of Rs. 50 lakhs will be remitted as Overheads to the University. To the balance amount a 60/40 ratio will be used with 60% being in favour of the Inventor(s) and 40% to the University.

The University may at times accept equity in the Licensee Company as part of the license fee. The inventor's share in such equity granted to the University shall be decided on a case-by-case basis.

In the event of any inconsistency with national legislation or government policies concerning patent revenue sharing, the respective legislation or government policies shall prevail.

Apportionment amongst Individual Inventors: Where more than one Inventor is involved, initial responsibility for agreeing to the division of the Inventors' share of revenue amongst them shall lie with those Inventors.

Cessation of employment either by resignation, retirement, or completion of project/ course, under normal circumstances, will not affect an individual's right to receive a share of "Royalty(ies)", provided the patent was generated during the due course of their employment or association with the University. Such cessation shall not also absolve the University Personnel from their obligations towards confidentiality or the procurement/registration of patent in so far as executing necessary documents and/or assisting attorneys/patent agents of the University towards the objectives of the University are concerned.

In the case of the death of the Inventor, any due share of the revenue will be paid to the legal representatives of the deceased.

Exception in case of Patent unrelated to official work

Creator(s) may apply to University for permission to patent/license know-how to organizations by themselves, when such patents are not related to the official duties and roles of the creator in University. Such patents will typically be in an area totally unrelated to the professional expertise of the creator for which University has employed him/her. Patents Committee will examine the proposal and recommend whether or not the request by the creator(s) can be acceded to. If on the recommendations of the Committee the Director permits the creator(s) to own / protect / license the patents independently, the creators may be permitted to be the sole beneficiary of all earnings from such patents and no amount therefrom will be payable by the creator(s) to University Copyright

All Ph.D Theses are to be copyrighted with a copyright note: © KARNATAK UNIVERSITY, DHARWAD (year). All rights are reserved. The technical reports, review works, M.Sc. dissertations may also be copyrighted, if the author wishes to copyright.

(b) While copy righting the thesis, it is the responsibility of the creator to ensure that the contents do not violate any copyright rules. If any materials including diagrams, tables, schemes, text etc are reproduced from any other copyrighted work, prior permission is to be obtained by the creators from the owner of the copyright document from where the material is taken.

(d) If information from some other sources are included, appropriate acknowledgement has to be given to this source, as per copy right law.

(a) Exceptions

(i) The ownership of the copyrights by University in no way deprives the claims of the creators / authors to publish the contributions in scholarly and intellectual work, and their authority to improve, publish and propagate the work. When a journal that accepts a paper submitted by an employee/student requires copyright for the paper to be given to them before publishing the said paper, the employee/student may do so.

(ii) The university may waive ownership of copyrights it owns in favour of the author(s), contributor(s) on request

(iii) Students and scholars may be allowed ownership of the copyrights to their works provided

- they do not result from works for which they had received financial or supervisory support of any form from or through University
- the work does not include any material generated entirely or partially with the help of University facility or ongoing research programme or the intellectual input of any employee of University.

PROCEDURE FOR LICENSING AND COMMERCIALIZATION

The University, through its Patent Cell, or its agents, or the creator(s) may approach external agencies for licensing of Patent owned by it. All agreements shall be signed by the Coordinator/Head of Patent cell and the creator(s) of the Patent being transferred, on behalf of the University.

In case of Patent involving more than one creator, a person among the creator(s) shall be identified by the creators, for Patent protection. At this stage, all members of the group of creators shall sign a revenue sharing agreement for the Patent being transferred. This revenue sharing agreement may be modified at any time on mutual consent among the creators and intimated to the Coordinator/Head of Patent cell. Any conflict with regard to revenue sharing among the creators will be resolved by the University which is binding on all the creators of the Patent.

Procedure for Licensing

An open patent policy will be pursued for all patents including patents/patent applications that are older than five years and have been published. The open license policy enables the interested industries to commercialize university patents without upfront payment of fees as would be required in a Trial licensing policy. Interested companies need to register at the university portal before embarking on such a process and get a permission to do so. Such permission in the form of a non-exclusive license agreement will be granted at the earliest of such a request being received. If such a company decides they would need to engage with university to take the evaluation/commercialization forward they will have to sign a suitable licensing agreement.

Patent generated from University funded projects

Trial Licensing: The companies/organizations interested in seeking a trial license, may approach university for a Trial Licensing agreement. A exclusive or non-exclusive trial license can be obtained by paying a nominal fee for a certain period of time, to be decided on a case by case basis but limited to a maximum period of 12 months before finalizing on the terms and conditions of the full license agreement.

The trial license evaluation period may be as follows

When the patent is yet to be verified: 1 to 12 months.

When the patent is tested but yet to be scaled: 6 to 12 months

When the patent has been tested (high TRL) and is meeting industry requirements: 1 to 6 months

The company/organization licensing the patent, in addition to the fee associated with the trial licensing, will bear the cost of faculty time, the cost of preparing any material and the cost of shipping/transportation in addition to other contingent costs that may be required to execute the Trial license at university. The costing details shall be provided on a case to basis.

The Company shall at the end of the Trial License period provide university a detailed evaluation report of the patent.

As and when such a Trial licensing opportunity provides itself, university faculty members will have to commit to spending a fraction of their time towards supporting the licensing activity if they wish to receive 60% of the licensing fee as per the university patent Policy. University faculty can choose to not participate. In such a case they will not receive the 60% due to them as per the patent policy during trial licensing. If after the trial licensing period there is successful licensing then faculty will be entitled to 20% of the revenue generated during the Trial licensing period.

If the Company wishes to enter into an exclusive license agreement post the Trial evaluation period, it shall submit to university a 5-year business plan. Post licensing, university will monitor the ability of the company/organization to Commercialize the patent licensed against the plan submitted. If university feels that the company/organization is not able to Commercialize the patent, then the university may revoke the exclusive license.

Full License: If more than one company/organization approaches university for the same patent before an exclusive license is granted to a particular company/organization, a non-exclusive license may be considered or a bidding process may be floated and the highest bidder shall get the priority. The aforesaid option shall be exercised solely by university on a case by case basis. If university decides on the bidding option, the companies will be given an opportunity to participate in the bidding only if they qualify to meet the parameters such as the technical expertise, financial capabilities, infrastructure, capacity to develop and commercialize the patent. The required parameters for qualifying to participate in the bidding process will be uploaded on university website and if required through other public sources on a case by case basis. A technical committee appointed by the Vice-Chancellor will evaluate the ability of interested companies to participate based on the parameters above and/or additional parameters provided on cases by basis and this committee has the discretion to disqualify those that they may deem to not meet the required criteria.

Patents generated from projects supported by funding agencies

With regard to research conducted with substantial support from external funding agencies, ownership of patent shall be determined as per the terms and conditions in the agreement signed between the University and external funding agency.

In the absence of a specific agreement between the University and the external funding agency that is providing substantial support for research, the University and external funding agency shall resolve the issue of joint ownership of copyright for sharing the benefits in the proportion of 60:40 for the university and external funding agency. However, in the event of commercialization of these research outputs, the revenue shall be shared similarly with the University and external agency as per the agreement/resolved.

Sole and Joint patent generated from industry funded projects

University will first offer the Industry the right to seek a license based on the type of project funded by the Industry.

Under the offer for a license approach, patent cell of university shall inform the Industry as soon as patent is generated at a designated email address to be included in the Project agreement.

University Sole patent: Industry shall respond to university within six months (Evaluation period) if they intend to pursue an exclusive or a non-exclusive license offer for university Sole patent. If Industry does not respond to university within six months to pursue the exclusive /non-exclusive license option university shall be free to license the university sole patent to any third party without accounting to the Industry and such patent shall be dealt as university in-house Project patent and licensed.

Joint patent: Industry shall respond to university within six months (Evaluation period) if they intend to pursue an exclusive license option for university Joint patent. If Industry does not respond to university within six months to pursue the exclusive license Option, university and the Industry may independently license to a third party without accounting to each other or University and the Industry will be free to license the patent to any third party and agree to share the revenue generated equally.

In the event of Joint patent, both Industry and university shall not assign the rights to any third party without informing the other Party.

PUBLICATION BASED ON PATENT

(a) Faculty members, scientific staff, research scholars disseminate their creative work through publications for which they generally have unrestricted freedom. Publications constitute only a part of the body of knowledge generated. University policy is to encourage transfer and dissemination of knowledge in as complete a form as possible subjected to the following restrictions namely (i) In the case of publications based on externally sponsored work permission from the sponsoring agency may sometimes be contractually required. University's agreement with the sponsor usually requires that this permission may not be normally denied except so far as to protect any tangible patents which may be of commercial value or of security interest to the sponsor, and the sponsor will act within a reasonable time to give the permission to publish. (ii) All publications based on sponsored projects shall also acknowledge the sponsor's support for the work reported in the publications and (iii) All the contracted obligations have to be adhered to by the creators in the case of patents generated through sponsored work.

b) In case of patentable patents, it is desirable to obtain the patent protection at least in the form of a provisional application before such patent is either published or exchanged so that both academic and commercial value of the patents is protected.

c) In order to protect the commercial value of patents without affecting the exchange of information, a special confidentiality agreement may be signed between interacting parties before exchanging the information about any patents.

AGREEMENTS AND CONTRACTS

Agreement categories and authorized signatories

All agreements related to the following categories, are to be approved by the University:

- (i) Confidentiality Agreement or any other Agreement does not render the University liable in any manner for breach of the agreement. Since such agreements often need to be entered quickly to enable progress in collaboration/interaction, the University has to respond promptly if the Agreement is entirely between the external party and the employee or student, and the University is not directly or indirectly made liable by the Agreement in any manner.
- (ii) Revenue Sharing Agreement, Indemnity agreement.
- (iii) Evaluation Agreement, Consultation Agreement, Research and Development Agreement (R&DA/MOU)
- (iv) Technology Transfer Agreement, License Agreement, Patent assignment agreement
- (v) Alternative Dispute Resolve Agreement

The Coordinator/Head of Patent Cell acts as the final signing authority in all the categories of agreements listed above, except confidentiality agreement which may be signed by the Patentee/creator with the consent of The Coordinator/Head of Patent Cell.

Infringements, Damages, Liability and Indemnity Insurance

In any contract with the licensee, University shall obtain indemnity from legal proceedings against University including its employees, without limitation, due to reasons including but not limited to manufacturing defects, production problems, design guarantee, upgradation, content created and debugging obligation.

Generally, University shall obtain, through appropriate agreement, indemnification from the organization to which patents is transferred, against any direct or third-party legal liability arising out of commercial exploitation of patents.

Any computer software developed and distributed by University either through public domain or commercially, shall have explicit disclaimer against any liability arising out of the use of software by any user. University shall retain the right to engage in any litigation concerning patents and license infringements.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST

- (i) The creator (s) are required to disclose any conflict of interest or potential conflict of interest.
- (ii) A license or an assignment of rights of any Patent to accompany in which the inventors have a stake shall be subject to the approval of the Coordinator/Head of Patent cell taking in to consideration the fact.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

In case of any dispute with regard to Patents policy, the decision of the University shall be deemed final and binding.

Jurisdiction

As a policy, all agreements to be signed by the University will have the jurisdiction of the courts in Dharwad and shall be governed by appropriate laws in India. Exceptions to this may be allowed in certain cases by the University if necessary.

PATENT RULES

The provisions of the Patent Act, 1970 (herein after referred to as the “1970 Act”) govern the procurement and grant of patents in India (Non-substantive procedural issues relating to the procurement & granting of patents are governed by the Patent Rules and not the 1970 Act). Section 159 of the Act, requires the Central Government to frame rules to administer and carry out the intent of the Act. The Act was kept in abeyance till the formulation of rules. The rules came into force on April 20, 1972. Thus, the 1970 Act (except for certain sections) came into force on April 20, 1972 . The remaining sections of the Act came into force on April 1, 1978. Since its enactment, the Act has been amended on five occasions by:

- The Repealing and Amending Act, 1974 (Act 56 of 1974)
- The Delegated Legislation Provisions (Amendment) Act, 1985 (Act 4 of 1985)
- The Patents (Amendment) Act, 1999 (17 of 1999)
- The Patents (Amendment) Act, 2002 (38 of 2002)
- The Patents (Amendment) Act, 2005 (15 of 2005)

Rules were formulated based on above Act and their amendments.
