Item 8 : Any other matter with the permission of the Chair.

Item 8 A : Modification of CBCS Syllabus at P.G. Dept. of Criminology & Forensic Science for the IIIrd Semester Paper 3.5: Local Institutional Visits and Study Tour.

Resolution 8 A : The CBCS Syllabus Masters in Criminology & Forensic Science for the IIIrd Semester includes Local Institutional Visits and Study Tour as paper 3.5. With the permission of the Chair the Departmental Council resolved to make some modifications in the concerned paper and replace the Study Tour with Internship Program/ Block Placement. The expected changes are to be as follows:

Existing	Proposal	Reason for Change
3.5- Local Institutional Visits and Study Tour. (i) Visit to Prison, Juvenile Home/Court, Criminal Court Total: 50 Marks	3.5- Local Institutional Visits/ Field Visits and Internship / Block Placement. (i) Visit to Prison, Juvenile Home/Court, Criminal Court	1) The syllabus of Criminology & Forensic Science includes less of practical prospects for the students to enhance their experience on field with this view in mind the Dept. intends to help students gain on field training along with field visits to local institution.

(ii) Study Tour Visits throughout India FSLs, Police Academy etc.	Total: 50 Marks	2) Due to security reasons, many institutions across India refuse permissions for visits because of which students attending study tour face problems in procuring permission.
Total: 50 Marks	(ii) Internship/ Block Placement to institutions like NGOs, Forensic Labs, B.P.R & D, Police Dogs Squad, Police Training Centres and other affiliated institutions to Criminal Justice System.	3) The Dept. of Criminology & Forensic Science have limited Permanent Faculty, owing to which it becomes difficult to manage taking students to Study Tour while delivering regular classes.
	Total: 50 Marks

The meeting was ended with the Chairman (B.O.S) (UG/PG) thanking all members for their Co-operation.
